3. SERVICE LEVELS

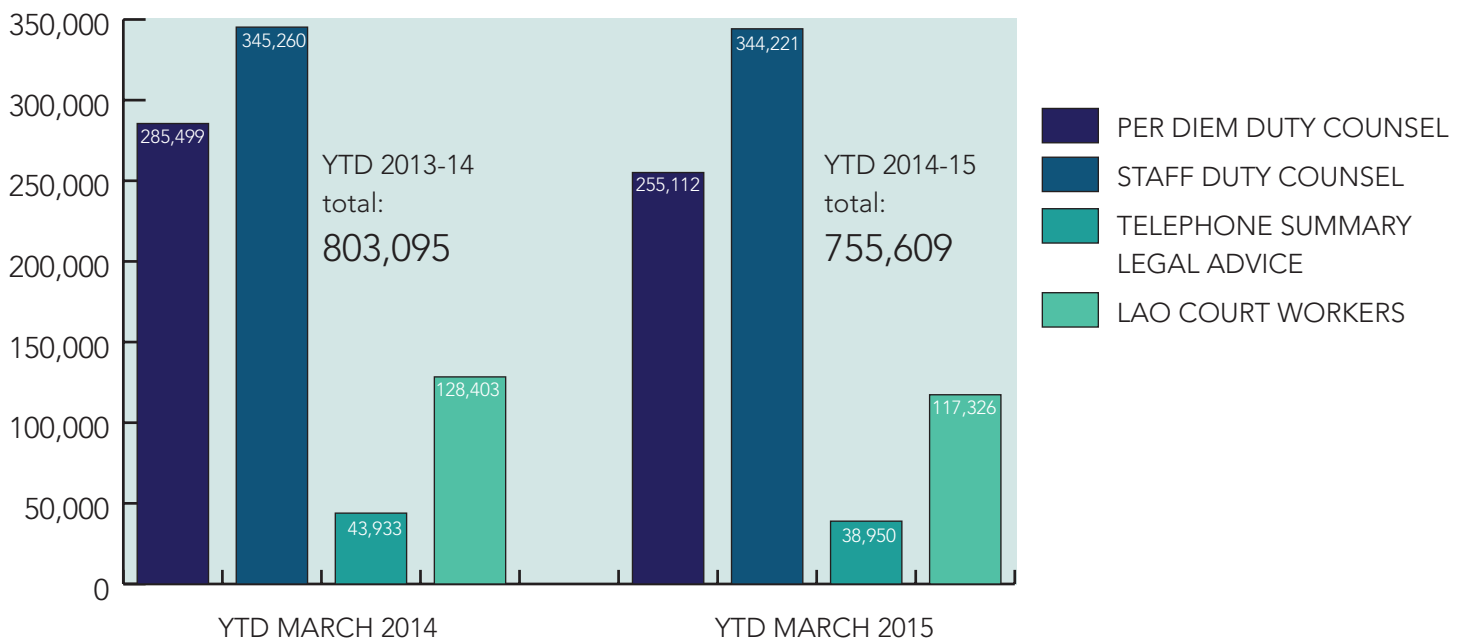

DUTY COUNSEL

Duty counsel are lawyers, available in most courthouses, who can quickly assess a person's legal problems and provide frontline advice, information and representation to people who would otherwise be unrepresented and unassisted in the courtroom.

As of the end of Q4, the total number of duty counsel assists (includes per diem, staff duty counsel, telephone summary legal advice and LAO court workers) assisted dropped by 5.9 per cent compared to last year. The decrease is consistent with the trend of fewer events being heard at courts.

Additionally, LAO's legal aid workers at the courthouse support duty counsel by providing certain services under appropriate supervision, so that LAO makes the most effective use of its per diem and staff lawyers.

Duty counsel total assists: YTD March 2014 / YTD March 2015

LEGAL AID CERTIFICATES

If a client is financially eligible and their legal needs warrant it, a client will be advised to apply for a certificate, which covers the cost of a lawyer.

The certificate is like a voucher, meaning that one of more than 3,600 private practice lawyers in Ontario who participate in the legal aid certificate program will be paid to represent an LAO client for a certain number of hours.

BIG CASE MANAGEMENT

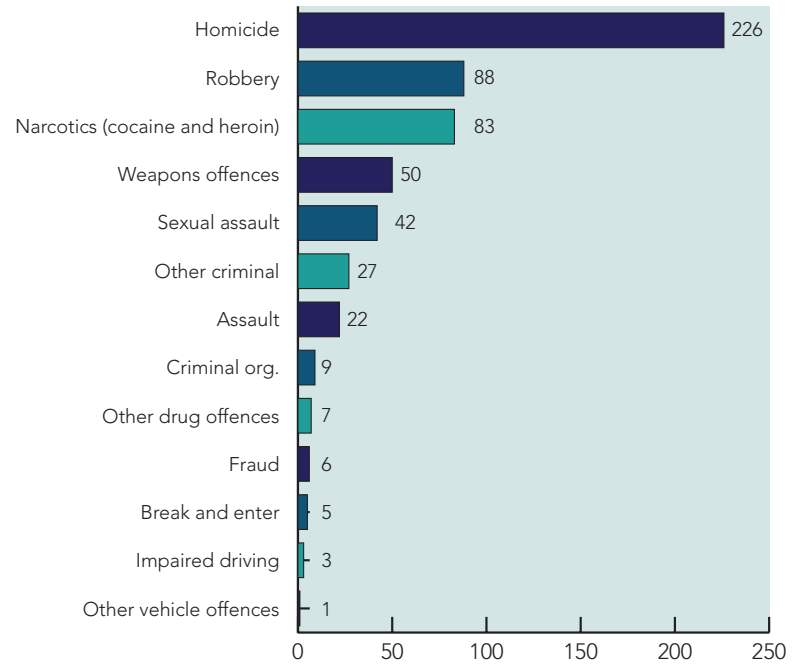

The Big Case Management (BCM) program governs the most costly and complex criminal trial defences funded by LAO.

Under the BCM program, LAO sets budget limits for criminal cases expected to cost more than $20,000. In these cases, LAO establishes individual budgets rather than using its standard tariff system to determine the maximum hours available to counsel.

LAO issued 569 BCM program certificates in 2014/15. The BCM program costs were $25.6 million for the year.
